COACH

RAYMOND K. PARKER, Head Coach

19th Coaching season (all in the NFL)

Residence: Upper St. Clair, Bridgeville, Pa.

Background: Started as a player-coach with Chicago Cardinals in 1943. Remained as Jimmy Conzelman's assistant and became head coach midway during 1949 season. Following year, became an assistant to Alvin (Bo) McMillin at Detroit. Succeeded the late head coach in 1951. Between then and 1957 when he resigned, he won three divisional titles and two world's championships with the Lions.

College Record: Famed halfback and fullback at Gentenary College in Louisiana. His coach, Homer Norton, called him a "brainy player."

Born: December 16, 1913. Is married and has one youngster, Bobby.

Coaching years:

- 1943—Player-Coach, Chicago Cardinals
- 1946—48—Backfield Coach, Chicago Cardinals
- 1949—Head Coach, Chicago Cardinals
- 1950—Assistant Coach, Detroit Lions
- 1951—56—Head Coach, Detroit Lions

WALTER KIESLING—is practically one of the National Football League's founding fathers. He is starting his 35th year in the league, 26 as a coach. He spent most of his playing days (nine years) with the Green Bay Packers and the Chicago Bears. He played Triple A baseball and made the famous football barnstorming tour with Red Grange for Cash and Carry Pyle. He played at St. Thomas College in Minnesota. He was born May 27, 1903.

ART (Pappy) LEWIS—is a seven-year veteran in the National Football League, three as a player, two as a coach. Spent a number of years as head coach at West Virginia University and twice was named the Southern Conference coach of the year. He played both with the New York Giants and the Cleveland Rams and, at 26, was named head coach of the Rams—the youngest in pro league history. He is one of Ohio University's greatest athletes. He was born Feb. 8, 1911. Is married and the father of two boys—the oldest a possible quarterback candidate at West Point.

THURMAN (Fum) McGRAW—spent five years in the league as a player for the Detroit Lions and now is starting his fourth as a coach with the Steelers. He comes from Colorado State, a little school which (enrollment-wise) has sent more players to the National Football League as any in the land. He played a big part in the Lions winning three divisional championships. He also spent three years as line coach and wrestling coach at his alma mater. He was born July 17, 1927 and has two sons and a daughter.

DICK PLASMAN—was born in Metcalf, Arizona, a community of 50 folks. He started with the Chicago Bears and then became a player-coach with the Cardinals. He spent six years in the league as a player, and ten as a coach. He starred at Vanderbilt University from 1933 through 1937. He was born April 6, 1914 and his family includes two daughters.

ASSISTANT COACHES

KEN STILLEY—is probably the only coach in football who also is the Mayor of his hometown. Big Ken, who starred at Notre Dame, is the boss man of Clairton, Pa. He spent no time in the league, either as a coach or player, but has wide collegiate coaching experience. He worked at New York University, St. Bonaventure and Detroit University. He was born Nov. 19, 1912 and is married to a former school teacher.

MIKE NIXON—comes to the Steelers after serving as head coach of the Washington Redskins. Actually it is a homecoming for Mike, who was an assistant here under both Dr. Jock Sutherland and John Michelosen. He played with the Brooklyn Dodgers, and also coached the then Chicago (but now St. Louis) Cardinals. He was an All-American at Pitt and coached both there and at West Virginia. He once was a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature. He was born Nov. 21, 1911 and is married and has a daughter.

JACK BUTLER—must be listed as one of the Pittsburgh Steelers all-time great players. He spent his high school days in a Catholic Seminary and never played football until he entered college. He was a five-time member of the All-Pro team. He played at St. Bonaventure University. He was born Nov. 12, 1927 and is the father of five youngsters.

CHARLES CHERUNDOLO—is a real pro, having played ten seasons in the NFL and immediately started coaching for the next twelve. He first played with the Cleveland Rams, was traded to the Philadelphia Eagles and then to the Steelers. He was an All-American center at Penn State. He was born Aug. 8, 1916 and is the father of two children.

BEATTY, ED SEVENTH YEAR
CENTER Ht. 6-3 Wt. 225 Mississippi

First joined the pros in 1955 when the Los Angeles Rams named him their No. 1 draft pick . . . Saw some service with the San Francisco 49ers and then moved over to Pittsburgh . . . Here he has been the No. 1 offensive center . . . Spends his off-seasons at the University of Tennessee Dental School . . . He will earn his D.D.S. next year . . . He plans to practice on the west coast . . . Lives in Tiptonville, Tennessee in the off-season . . .

BUKICH, RUDY SEVENTH YEAR
QUARTERBACK Ht. 6-2 Wt. 200 Southern California

Perhaps the most traveled player in the National Football League . . . Began his career with the Los Angeles Rams . . . Went into service . . . Returned to the Rams . . . Traded to the Redskins . . . Over to the Chicago Bears and eventually to Steelers . . . Grew up in St. Louis . . . but now makes his home on the west coast . . . Recognized as the owner of one of the strongest arms in football . . .

BURNETT, LEONARD FIRST YEAR
HALFBACK Ht. 6-2 Wt. 190 Oregon

An early surprise in the Pittsburgh Steelers' training camp . . . Born in little Antonio, Texas . . . but family moved to San Diego . . . Played under Len Casanova at the University of Oregon . . . Starred in the first Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia . . . Played against Penn State . . . He is the only boy in a family of five . . . Played both end and linebacker in college but has become a deep defensive back for the pros . . . Lives in San Diego . . .

BUTLER, BILL THIRD YEAR
HALFBACK Ht. 5-10 Wt. 185 Chattanooga

Broke into the league with Green Bay but saw decidedly little action . . . Was sold to the Dallas Cowboys when they entered the league in 1960 . . . Was a top defensive back . . . Finally figured in a big off-season trade which sent Dicky Moegle from Pittsburgh to Dallas . . . A consistent punt return and kickoff return artist . . . Has ranked among the first five in these departments . . . Will play a wing or safety position in Pittsburgh . . .

CARPENTER, PRESTON

SIXTH YEAR

END

Ht. 6-1 Wt. 195 Arkansas

Was the Browns' first pick in 1956 . . . Was an all-around athlete at West Memphis High in Arkansas and a football and baseball star at the University . . . Led the Browns in rushing his first season . . . and then was shifted to end . . . He then grew into the club's leading receiver . . . Came to the Steelers in a trade which sent Gern Nagler and Len Dawson to Cleveland . . . His record follows:

| YEAR | Rushing | | | | | Receiving | | |
|--------|---------|----|------|------|-----|-----------|------|-----|

CLEMENT, HENRY

FIRST YEAR

END

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 205 North Carolina

Was an eleventh draft choice . . . but selected as a quarterback or defensive halfback prospect . . . Can throw the ball accurately for 50 yards or more . . . Worked at both positions and then shifted to the tight or blocking end . . . Has been developing as a real prospect there . . . Played at North Carolina . . . Lives in Westbury, Long Island . . .

CORONADO, BOB

FIRST YEAR

END Ht. 6-2 Wt. 195 College of Pacific

Ninth choice of the Chicago Bears in 1959, entered Armed Forces for two years and now officially begins his professional football career . . . Bob was rated by his Coach at College of Pacific, Jack "Moose" Meyer, as a better prospect than other C.O.P. wingman, Clyde Conner, at the completion of his collegiate career . . . Lives in Vallejo, California . . .

DANIEL, WILLIAM

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 5-11 Wt. 190 Mississippi State
Graduated two seasons ago . . . but decided to enter high school coaching . . . In the midst of a game, an irate father moved onto the field and slugged the young coach for not playing his boy . . . The young coach thought pro ball couldn't be any tougher than this and came to Pittsburgh . . . Has developed into a first rate prospect . . . Lives in Macon, Mississippi . . .DERBY, DEAN

FIFTH YEAR

HALFBACK Ht. 6-0 Wt. 190 Washington
A dependable safetyman from the West Coast . . . Came to the Steelers in a trade with the Los Angeles Rams . . . Was touted as a great offensive star . . . but like most speed backs, he was put on defense . . . Has been selected to the All-Pro game . . . Is a radio and television announcer in the off-season . . . Also works a big ranch in Washington . . . Lives in Walla Walla, Washington . . .DIAL, BUDDY

THIRD YEAR

END Ht. 6-1 Wt. 195 Rice
Almost every pro team makes a major mistake on a player . . . Dial was the New York Giants' faux pas . . . Drafted number two by New York, he was released before the opening of the season . . . Picked up by the Steelers, he immediately developed into one of the top ends in the league . . . In two seasons, he has caught 56 passes for a total of 1400 yards and 15 touchdowns . . . He also is a recording star and recently cut a record of hymns . . . Is married and the father of one youngster . . . Lives in Houston . . .

GREEN, BOBBY JOE

SECOND YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 5-11 Wt. 185 Florida

Came down from the Canadian League last year . . . Has been used exclusively as a punter . . . Grew up in Oklahoma . . . In high school he booted a 99-yard punt . . . Was a top college kicker . . . and a fine running back . . . In his freshman year, he booted the ball 64 times for 2834 yards and a 44.3 average . . . He missed the kicking title by a bare percentage point . . . Married and lives in Gainesville, Fla. . . .

HAYES, RUDY

THIRD YEAR

GUARD

Ht. 6-0 Wt. 215 Clemson

A tough competitor who spent part of last year backing up the line . . . Plagued by injuries he never was able to go full speed throughout the season . . . Underwent surgery during the off-season and returned in top shape . . . Coaches have been experimenting with him at offensive guard . . . Spends his off-season hunting and fishing . . .

HENRY, MIKE

THIRD YEAR

LINEBACKER

Ht. 6-0 Wt. 220 Southern California

Another linebacker who was hampered by injuries last year . . . but in the early part of this season has played great ball . . . He came to camp his first season but reinjured his chest and returned home for the entire season . . . Came back last year and continued to improve until a leg slowed him . . . If he remains sound, he undoubtedly will be a top cornerman in the league . . . Married and lives in Los Angeles . . .

HOAK, DICK

FIRST YEAR

HALFBACK

Ht. 5-11 Wt. 190 Penn State

Drafted seventh by the Steelers, he has developed into the real surprise in training camp . . . Currently understudying Tom Tracy, he has starred when the Bomb was benched with an injury . . . A quarterback in college, he is a big threat on the pass-option . . . He also is a tough, inside runner . . . Not a spectacular player, he is an all-around star . . . Lives in Jeannette, Pa. . . .

JAMES, DAN

SECOND YEAR

TACKLE

Ht. 6-3 Wt. 255 Ohio State

Was the San Francisco 49ers first draft two years ago . . . but he reported overweight from the All-Star camp and failed to make the squad . . . He spent a season out of football and the Steelers then made a trade for him last year . . . He broke into the starting lineup in the mid-sixty season and is a number one offensive tackle this fall . . . Married and lives in Columbus . . .

JOHNSON, JOHN HENRY

SEVENTH YEAR

FULLBACK Ht. 6-2 Wt. 215 Arizona State (Tempe)

Injuries hurt the ball carrying effort of the big fullback until the tag end of last season . . . but the off-season rest has him in ready-to-go form . . . In the early pre-season games he has carried the brunt of the running attack . . . Also is a great blocker, particularly on pass plays . . . Originally drafted by Pittsburgh, he spent a season in Canada and then was traded to San Francisco . . . In 1957, he was sent to Detroit and eventually to Pittsburgh . . . His all-time marks follow:

| YEAR | Rushing | | | | | Receiving | | |
|--------|---------|----|------|------|-----|-----------|------|-----|
| | F. | R. | ATT. | YDS. | TD. | NO. | YDS. | TD. |

Drafted originally by Detroit as an offensive end . . . but quickly developed into one of the top defensive backs on some of the Lions' championship elevens . . . Eventually was traded to the New York Giants and picked up by Pittsburgh as a free agent this fall . . . Starred as an offensive end at Syracuse and played in the Orange Bowl . . . Was an all-around college athlete . . . Went to Glen Cove, Long Island, high school . . . but now makes his home in Detroit . . .

KAPELE, JOHNSECOND YEAR*END*Ht. 6-0 Wt. 240 Brigham Young

One of an increasingly number of Hawaiian boys playing pro football . . . Grew up on the island of Oahu, not far from Honolulu . . . Is a Mormon and came to the University in Utah . . . Played guard in college . . . but has been switched to defensive end . . . Is one of the strongest . . . yet gentlest . . . players on the squad . . .

KLEIN, DICKFOURTH YEAR*TACKLE*Ht. 6-4 Wt. 255 Iowa

A farm boy from Pana, Illinois . . . Klein originally was drafted by the Chicago Bears . . . but was sold last year to the new Dallas club . . . Then figured in a trade which sent Bill Butler and him to Pittsburgh for Dicky Moegle . . . Has been slowed with a chronic shoulder injury . . . Played at Georgia, then entered the Navy and upon discharge went to Iowa . . . Still lives in Pana . . .

KRUPA, JOE SIXTH YEAR*TACKLE*Ht. 6-2 Wt. 235 Purdue

One of the most dependable and durable linemen in the league . . . Week after week does a steady, workmanlike job with little or no public recognition . . . but is ranked by the coaches and players as one of the best . . . Particularly strong against a running attack . . . Missed only one game at Purdue . . . Voted the most valuable player there . . . Married and lives in Chicago . . .

LAYNE, BOBBYQUARTERBACK*FOURTEENTH YEAR*Ht. 6-1 Wt. 210 Texas

One of football's all-time great players and quarterbacks . . . Formally joined the Steelers in October, 1958 . . . In a trade that sent quarterback Earl Morrall and a couple of draft choices to Detroit . . . Perhaps the greatest trade in Steeler history . . . for Layne is credited with sparking the team into contention . . . Ranks ahead or second to the great Sammy Baugh in most of the league's passing statistics . . . Starting his fourteenth year . . . Baugh made his marks in sixteen years . . . Was the Chicago Bears No. 1 draft choice in 1948 . . . Spent a season or two with the New York Bulldogs . . . before moving to Detroit . . . where he led Lions to three world titles . . . Was a great college baseball pitcher . . . unbeaten in three years . . . Led the NFL in scoring in 1957 . . . Once had 58 straight extra points . . . Also kicks field goals . . . Has established a number of team and individual records while with the Steelers . . . Has a lovely wife, Carol and two boys . . . Lives in Lubbock, Texas . . . His all-time record:

LIPSCOMB, GENENINTH YEAR*TACKLE*Ht. 6-7 Wt. 288 No college

Everyone knows this massive gent as "Big Daddy" . . . Was sent to Pittsburgh at the opening of training season from the Baltimore Colts . . . It was the type of trade that gave the man-on-the-street plenty of conversational material . . . He was part of a deal which sent three Steelers to the land by the Chesapeake Bay . . . In 1958, his sixth in the NFL, Lipscomb finally made the All-Pro team . . . It wasn't an easy pull for this giant without any college fundamentals . . . He was discovered by the Los Angeles Rams at the Camp Pendleton Marine Corps . . . He didn't come into his own until he was traded to the Colts in 1956 . . . He has exceptional speed and mobility for his size . . . Many times he can be seen making a tackle of a halfback who is skirting an end . . . The Steelers feel he could bulwark their defense . . . During the off-season he wrestled on the west coast . . . Lives in Baltimore . . .

MACK, WILLIAMFIRST YEAR*HALFBACK*Ht. 6-1 Wt. 185 Notre Dame

This Redhead, barring college injuries, was a sure first round draft pick . . . but he underwent operations on both knees and the Steelers gambled and selected him on the tenth round . . . It could be the pick of the year . . . He is an exceptional receiver . . . Has tremendous speed . . . Has played well in the early pre-season games . . . Could be the perfect replacement for Jimmy Orr, who was traded to Baltimore . . . Was a top high school star . . . and participated in a number of sports, including boxing . . . Lives in Allison Park, Pa. . . .

MICHAELS, LOUFOURTH YEAR*END*Ht. 6-2 Wt. 240 Kentucky

Truly a great college star . . . Was named to no less than nineteen All-American teams . . . Drafted number one by the Los Angeles Rams when he was ranked as the finest lineman in college . . . Was shifted to defensive end . . . and immediately won rookie of the year honors . . . Then was shifted to a number of positions . . . whenever the Rams needed a weakness strengthened . . . Was traded by the Rams to Pittsburgh for Frank Varrichione, a great offensive tackle from Notre Dame . . . Once blocked a Yale Lary punt . . . the first punt the famed Detrotier had stopped in five years . . . Is expected to add great strength to the Steeler defense . . . Has a brother, Walt, with the Cleveland Browns . . . Is a left-footed field goal kicker . . . Also kicks off . . .

NISBY, JOHN

FIFTH YEAR

GUARD Ht. 6-1 Wt. 230 College of Pacific

Another team's mistake was the Steelers' gain . . . Drafted by Green Bay, this boy was picked up by the Steelers . . . He developed into a top offensive guard . . . When going at top speed is ranked as one of the most vicious leader's of interference in the league . . . This year has been playing some offensive tackle . . . Good speed and rough . . . Is a salesman during the off-season . . . Now makes his home in Pittsburgh . . .

NOFSINGER, TERRY
